Definitions

• Section 9 of the Child Protection Act 1999- “Harm”, to a child, is any detrimental effect of a significant nature on the child’s physical, psychological or emotional wellbeing.
  1. It is immaterial how the harm is caused.
  2. Harm can be caused by—
     a) physical, psychological or emotional abuse or neglect; or
     b) sexual abuse or exploitation.
  3. Harm can be caused by—
     a) a single act, omission or circumstance; or
     b) a series or combination of acts, omissions or circumstances.

• Section 10 of the Child Protection Act 1999- A “child in need of protection” is a student who—
  a) has suffered significant harm, is suffering significant harm, or is at unacceptable risk of suffering significant harm; and
  b) does not have a parent able and willing to protect the child from the harm.

• Section 364 of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006- “Sexual abuse”, in relation to a relevant person, includes sexual behaviour involving the relevant person and another person in the following circumstances —
  a) the other person bribes, coerces, exploits, threatens or is violent toward the relevant person;
  b) the relevant person has less power than the other person;
  c) there is a significant disparity between the relevant person and the other person in intellectual capacity or maturity

Health and Safety

The school has written policies in place about the health and safety of its staff and students in accordance with relevant workplace health and safety legislation\(^1\).

Responding to Reports of Harm

When the school receives any information alleging ‘harm’\(^2\) to a student (other than harm arising from physical or sexual abuse) it will deal with the situation compassionately and fairly so as to

\(^1\) [Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2001 (Qld) s.10(1)]
minimise any likely harm to the extent it reasonably can. This is set out in the school's Child Risk Management Strategy. Information relating to physical or sexual abuse is handled under obligations to report set out in this policy\(^4\).

Conduct of Staff and Students

All staff, contractors and volunteers must ensure that their behaviour towards and relationships with students reflect proper standards of care for students. Staff, contractors and volunteers must not cause harm to students\(^4\).

Reporting Inappropriate Behaviour

If a student considers the behaviour of a staff member to be inappropriate, the student should report the behaviour to:-

(a) Graeme Johnston - Principal

or

(b) Lorraine Grierson

Dealing with Report of Inappropriate Behaviour

A staff member who receives a report of inappropriate behaviour must report it to the Principal.
Where the Principal is the subject of the report of inappropriate behaviour, the staff member must inform a member of the school's board\(^5\).

Reporting Sexual Abuse\(^6\)

Section 366 of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 states that if a staff member becomes aware, or reasonably suspects in the course of their employment at the school, that any of the following has been sexually abused by another person:

a) a student under 18 years attending the school;

b) a pre-preparatory aged child registered in a pre-preparatory learning program at the school;

c) a person with a disability who:-

i. under section420(2) of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006is being provided with special education at the school; and

ii. is not enrolled in the preparatory year at the school

\(^2\)Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2001 (Qld) s.10(8): the definition of 'harm' for this regulation is the same as in section 9 of the Child Protection Act 1999(Qld)

\(^3\)Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2001 (Qld) s.10(2)

\(^4\)Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2001 (Qld) s.10(2)

\(^5\)Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2001 (Qld) s.10(3)

\(^6\)Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2001 (Qld) s.10(5)(a) then the staff member must give a written report about the abuse or suspected abuse to the Principal. The staff member must keep a copy of the report for their own records.

Where the Principal is the subject of the report of sexual abuse, the staff member must inform a member of the school’s board.\(^7\)

\[(\text{Under section 366B of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006, the directors of a school’s governing body may delegate the directors’ function under section 366 to an appropriately qualified individual (this cannot be the Principal or any other staff member of the school). Directors should ensure they are well briefed about the requirements of section 366B before delegating this function.})\]

If the staff member who becomes aware or reasonably suspects sexual abuse is the school’s Principal, the Principal must give a written report about the abuse, or suspected abuse to a police officer immediately and must also give a copy of the report to a director of the school’s governing body.

A report under this section must include the following particulars:-

a) the name of the person giving the report (the first person);

b) the student’s name and sex;

c) details of the basis for the first person becoming aware, or reasonably suspecting, that the student has been sexually abused by another person;

d) details of the abuse or suspected abuse;

e) any of the following information of which the first person is aware:-

i. the student’s age;

ii. the identity of the person who has abused, or is suspected to have abused, the student;

iii. the identity of anyone else who may have information about the abuse or suspected abuse.\(^8\)

\textbf{Reporting Likely Sexual Abuse}\(^9\)

Section 366A of the \textit{Education (General Provisions) Act 2006} states that if a staff member becomes aware, or reasonably suspects in the course of their employment at the school, that any of the following is likely to be sexually abused by another person:-

a) a student under 18 years attending the school;

b) a pre-preparatory aged child registered in a pre-preparatory learning program at the school;

c) a person with a disability who:

\(^7\)\textit{Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2001 (Qld) s.10(3)}

\(^8\)\textit{Education (General Provisions) Regulation 2006 (Qld) s.68}

\(^9\)\textit{Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2001 (Qld) s.10(5)(a)}
i. under section 420(2) of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 is being provided with special education at the school; and

ii. is not enrolled in the preparatory year at the school

then the staff member must give a written report about the suspicion to the Principal. The staff member must keep a copy of the report for their own records.

Where the Principal is the subject of the report of likely sexual abuse, the staff member must inform a member of the school’s board\(^\text{10}\).

(Under section 366B of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006, the directors of a school’s governing body may delegate the directors’ function under section 366A to an appropriately qualified individual (this cannot be the Principal or any other staff member of the school). Directors should ensure they are well briefed about the requirements of section 366B before delegating this function.)

If the staff member who becomes aware or reasonably suspects likely sexual abuse is the school’s Principal, the Principal must give a written report about the suspicion to a police officer immediately and must also give a copy of the report to a director of the school’s governing body.

A report under this section must include the following particulars:-

a) the name of the person giving the report (the first person);
b) the student’s name and sex;
c) details of the basis for the first person reasonably suspecting that the student is likely to be sexually abused by another person;
d) any of the following information of which the first person is aware:-

i. the student’s age;
ii. the identity of the person who has abused, or is suspected to be likely to abuse, the student;
iii. the identity of anyone else who may have information about suspected likelihood of abuse\(^\text{11}\).

Reporting Physical and Sexual Abuse

Under Section 13E (3) of the Child Protection Act 1999, if a staff member forms a ‘reportable suspicion’ about a child in the course of their engagement in their profession, they must make a written report.

A reportable suspicion about a child is a reasonable suspicion that the child: -

a) has suffered, is suffering, or is at unacceptable risk of suffering, significant harm caused by physical or sexual abuse; and
b) may not have a parent able and willing to protect the child from the harm.

\(^\text{10}\) Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2001 (Qld) s.10(3)
\(^\text{11}\) Education (General Provisions) Regulation 2006 (Qld) s.68A
Then the staff member must give the written report to the Principal. The staff member must keep a copy of the report for their own records.

A report under this section must include the following particulars:-

   a) state the basis on which the person has formed the reportable suspicion; and
   b) include the information prescribed by regulation, to the extent of the person’s knowledge.

Where the Principal is the subject of the report of physical or sexual abuse, the staff member must inform a member of the school’s board.

If the staff member who becomes aware or reasonably suspects physical or sexual abuse is the school’s Principal, the Principal must give a written report about the suspicion to a police officer immediately and must also give a copy of the report to a director of the school’s governing body.

Awareness

The school will inform staff, students and parents of its processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students in communications to them and it will publish these processes on its website.

Training

The school will train its staff in processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students on their induction and will refresh training annually.

Implementing the Processes

The school will ensure it is implementing processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students by auditing compliance with the processes annually.

Accessibility of Processes

Processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students are accessible on the school website and will be available on request from the school administration.

Complaints Procedure

Suggestions of non-compliance with the school’s processes may be submitted as complaints under Emerald Christian College Grievance Policy.
