- Springsure: 2 - 3 June 2017
- Emerald: 6 - 7 June 2017
I give permission for my child

To train for and participate in the Young Paraders Competition. This involves:

1. Attending the Springsure Cattle Camp 8 - 11 April 2017
2. Acquiring suitable clothing for competition days
3. Training the animal several afternoons a week on an agreed schedule
4. The College will assist with entry fees, transport and some equipment

I understand that certain risks & dangers will exist such as (but not limited to) loss/damage to personal property, injury or fatality.

- I acknowledge that while the staff will make every reasonable effort to minimise risks, not all dangers associated with the activities can be foreseen.
- I accept the fact that, while the college staff are skilled & experienced, they can not guarantee my child’s safety since some risks are beyond their control.
- I authorise staff to obtain medical attention for my child at their discretion in the event of injury or illness.
- I confirm that my child is medically fit to participate in the activity and that medical information given to Emerald Christian College is current & up to date.
- I agree to pay the fees for such medical expenses of pharmaceutical supplies and conveyance, which may be incurred as a result of medical advice.
- I give my son/daughter permission to fully participate in all activities organised by staff.
- I understand that staff will exercise all possible care, but will not be liable for damage to persons and properties.

Acknowledgement of receipt of information

I also acknowledge that prior to commencement in my VET course at this RTO I have been provided with a VET Student Handbook and have been inducted in the information on the topics listed below.
Springsure Cattle Camp

- Qualification or VET accredited course code and title and its currency
- Units of competency (code and title)
- Estimated duration
- Expected locations at which training and assessment will occur
- Modes of delivery
- Name and contact details of any third party that will provide training and/or assessment and explanation of the arrangements
- Any work placement arrangements
- The RTO's obligation to provide quality training and assessment
- Issuance (and re-issuance) of qualifications
- Learner's rights and responsibilities including:
  - Complaints and appeals policy and procedure
  - Processes for the event of the RTO or a third party ceasing operations
  - VET FEE-HELP scheme obligations
  - Requirements the learner must meet to complete the course, such as travel, activities outside normal hours, etc
  - Any equipment or materials the learner must provide, such as steel capped boots, uniform, tools, etc
- Fees, charges & refund information
  - Includes all fees such as training fees, administration fees, consumables, levies, etc
  - Payment terms
  - Refund policy

- Pathways including options if the qualification is not completed
- Student support services including LLN, welfare and guidance services, access and equity
- Recognition of prior learning (RPL)
- Recognition of qualifications and Statements of Attainment issued by other RTOs

I am aware that the RTO will ensure that I am provided with the opportunity to complete the training and assessment as agreed. If circumstances arise that affect my ability to complete this course (e.g. loss of a teacher and unable to obtain suitable replacement) then the RTO must arrange for training and assessment to be completed by another suitable training organisation (I am aware that this may incur costs for me as a learner). Prior to the transfer to another RTO, I will be formally notified of the arrangements and an agreement to those arrangements, including any refund or fees associated, will be obtained.

I acknowledge that I have read the VET Student Handbook and understand that I can access further information on some of these topics should I wish to do so.
