

2nd August 2018

Dear Parents/ Guardians,

Your child has been nominated to attend and participate in the very special event of Youth Parliament in Emerald Town Hall on Friday 10th August 2018.

The Youth Parliament will commence at 9:30am and finish at 1:00pm. Students will be transported by the school bus to and from ECC on the day. All participating students are required to prepare a brief (one minute) speech on either the nominated youth issue or an issue of interest to them in the Adjournment Debate.

While Mrs Clout will be working with students in class to help prepare their speeches, there will also be an after-school briefing held at the Town Hall on Wednesday 8th of August from 3:45pm-4:30pm, which students are expected to attend. At this briefing, students will be prepared for how to vote in the Youth Parliament and given an opportunity to ask any last-minute questions about the day.

Parents are asked to transport their child to and from the after-school event (although please let Mrs Clout know if transport is an issue.)

Please fill in and return by Monday 6th of August the permission slip below for both events.

With thanks,

Mrs Clout (Year 6 teacher)

Mrs Grierson (Dean of Junior Years)

Youth Parliament (return by Monday 6th August)
